A journey to adventure

Reading  Escape from the fire
Chapter 1: Grandad

Robert was excited. He was going to stay with his grandfather at the weekend. Lucy, his cousin, was going to stay too. She was the same age as Robert and they were good friends.

While Robert was packing his bag, the telephone rang noisily. Robert answered it. It was Lucy.

"I hope we have a great weekend," said Lucy.
"So do I," said Robert. "It's always good fun at Grandad's."

While Robert was travelling on the bus, he thought about Grandad. There were two things about him that Robert and Lucy really liked. First, he was very, very clever. He was an inventor. He invented lots of things, but mostly he invented new kinds of mobile phones. The other thing they liked was that Grandad loved history. His house was full of history books. When Robert and Lucy came to stay, Grandad told them exciting stories from history. The cousins loved the stories because they were true. They loved Grandad's tales of explorers who used to sail across the oceans and travel across deserts to distant lands.

Robert knocked on Grandad's door. Mrs Green, the maid, opened it.
"Hello, Robert," she said. "Come in."
"Hello, Mrs Green," Robert said. "How are you?"
"I'm fine," said Mrs Green. She took his bag from him. "Your grandfather is in his study."

Robert hurried into Grandad's study. "Hello, Grandad," he began. Then he stopped in surprise.
Grandad was sitting in an armchair. There was a big bandage on his foot.
“Grandad, what happened?” Robert asked.
“I’ve hurt my ankle,” Grandad said. “The doctor says I mustn’t walk on it for a few days.”
“Poor Grandad. Does it hurt? I’ll help you and so will Lucy. Where is she? Has she arrived yet?”
Grandad looked worried. “I’m not sure,” he said. “I think she has disappeared.”
“Disappeared?” said Robert. “What do you mean?”
Grandad leaned towards him and whispered, “I think she has travelled back in time.”

Chapter 2: The time-travel phones

Robert looked at Grandad, amazed. “How could Lucy have travelled back in time?” he asked.
Grandad showed him a mobile phone. “Look at this,” he said. “This is not an ordinary phone. This is my newest invention.”
Robert thought the mobile phone looked ordinary. “What’s special about it?” he asked.
“Do you promise not to tell anyone?”
“Not even Lucy?”
“Lucy knows already.”
“Not even Mum and Dad?”
“I’ll tell them soon.”
“With this mobile phone you can travel back in time.”
“Wow!” Robert exclaimed. “Can you really do that?”
Grandad nodded proudly. “I’ve worked on this invention for two years,” he said. “It’s ready now.”
Robert’s eyes widened. “How does it work?”
“Let me show you. You put in the date you want to visit. Then you put in the place you want to visit. Then you put in the password, Adventure.”
“Did you tell Lucy this?”
“Yes. And now one of the time-travel phones is missing.”
“How many time-travel phones have you made?” Robert asked.
“Four,” Grandad shook his head. “I’m worried, Robert. I think Lucy has used the missing phone to travel back in time.”
“Wow!” Robert exclaimed. “Where do you think she has gone?”

The Chinese inventors

Grandad was holding the time-travel phone. He put in ‘China, 2000 years ago, Adventure’. Suddenly, they were standing in a large courtyard.

Those soldiers look very fierce.

Chinese ladies always used to carry umbrellas in the garden.

These men are scientists and I think they are inventing...

... gunpowder!

Look out! The soldiers are coming!

Do you remember Grandad’s invention? Here is the start of another adventure!
Who's that?

Go and see, Jamie.

Bob! What a surprise!

I've brought a present for Jamie.

Woah! A £20 note!

Sorry I can't stay.

See you soon!

Oh! It's heavy.

How much money have I got now?

How much have you got?

I haven't got any money.

You spend your money. I save mine.

What are you going to buy?

I've seen the one I want.
